

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA AT LAFAYETTE
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

ANNOUNCES FOR FALL 2008

MASTER OF MUSIC

CONCENTRATIONS Music Education, Conducting, Performance Pedagogy, Performance, or Theory / Composition. Curricula are very flexible and may be customized according to each student's interests such as jazz performance and composition, chamber music, specialization in instrument families, media, or accompanying.

FINANCIAL AID A limited number of Graduate Assistantships (GA) are available based on departmental need and students' performance level. GAs provide a tuition waiver and a stipend of $7,500. Assistantships are renewable for up to two academic years dependent upon GPA, progress towards degree, and departmental evaluation of assistantship duties. Housing awards are also available.

A limited amount of financial aid is available from the Friends of Music also based on departmental need and students' performance level. Amounts are generally between $1,000 and $1,500 per semester.

Also, for graduate students in music education, the Teacher Tuition Incentive and Exemption program is available on a limited basis through the University College. This provides a partial waiver of tuition. Eligibility criteria are available from University College (universitycollege@louisiana.edu). In-service teachers may also wish to consult their local school boards for tuition assistance and sabbatical leave possibilities.

QUALIFICATIONS Completed bachelor's degree by June, 2008. Meet graduate school entrance requirements, including general GRE requirements. Entrance audition.

SEMESTER BEGINS August 2008

INFORMATION Located at the junction of I-10 at I-49, Lafayette is the hub of a major North-South and East-West transportation corridor for the US and is one of Louisiana's fastest growing cities. UL is the largest of nine publicly supported state institutions governed by the University of Louisiana System and is a Doctoral II Research Institution with approximately 15,500 students and over 500 faculty. Since 1952 all programs have been fully accredited by National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). See our web site at <http://music.louisiana.edu>
