1. Exam must be completed prior to the beginning of the semester the course is offered.
2. Please have everything worked out before scheduling your exam. If you need assistance, please see a member of the piano faculty or a piano graduate assistant.
3. You must score a “C” or better on each section of the exam to pass.

EXAM CONTENT

1. Technique:
   a. Play the required technical drill in the following major and minor keys: F, C, G, D, A.
   b. Play the following major and minor scales (3 forms). One octave, Hands Together
      i. C, G, D, A, E Major and Minor

2. Reading: Prepare all the examples in this document. You will be expected to play with fluency, using correct notes, rhythms, dynamics, and articulations. Good fingering practices should be observed.

3. Repertoire: Choose and prepare one of the pieces from this list:

   Transcendental Waltz by Chan Kiat Lim
   Bagatelle by Anton Diabelli
   Simple Reminiscence by Chan Kiat Lim
   Crossing Through Troubled Waters by Susanna Garcia
   Etude, Op. 777, No. 5 by Carl Czerny
   Mazurka by Cornelius Gurlitt

   You will be expected to play with fluency, using correct notes, rhythms, dynamics, and articulations. Good fingering practices should be observed.

4. Harmonization: Largo by Antonín Dvořák.

   Realize Largo with the given chord progression. When you see a chord written with a slash, you are being asked to play in a specific inversion. F/C means that you will play an F chord with C in the bottom voice (2nd inversion). Print out the worksheet so that you can write out your arrangement.

5. Improvisation: Waltz Style

   Improvise a melody over the given accompaniment. Your melody should harmonize with the chord progression. Play with two hands.

6. Score Reading

   a. Open score: Prepare all three examples. Be able to play all three parts simultaneously, and all combinations of two parts.

   b. Chorale: Wiegenlied by Brahms

7. Transposition: Play each example in concert pitch.
